

Charles Brant

Charles Brant is one of the most successful criminal and civil litigation attorneys in the southeast and has successfully represented clients facing charges of murder, vehicular homicide, trafficking, white collar crimes and theft.

He began his career as an intern at the Public Defender's office in Washington, D.C. He later moved to Atlanta, Georgia and worked for the City of Atlanta Public Defender's Office.

Brant set out on his own in 1994, where he represented thousands of clients facing criminal charges on both a state and federal level.

Wilbur Colom and Charles Brant came together and created Colom and Brant, LLC, Attorneys at Law. Wilbur Colom is and always has been a recognized and very successful civil attorney, providing a solid foundation for the civil practice of Colom and Brant.

Brant was commissioned as an Officer in the United State Navy in 1984 and served on active duty before joining the Reserves as an Intelligence Officer.

Bar Admissions:

Georgia	1994
Washington, D.C.	1994
Northern District of Georgia (Federal)	1994
Middle District of Georgia (Federal)	1994

Education:

Morehouse College	1984
Georgia Institute of Technology – Naval ROTC	1984
Mercer, Walter F. George School of Law	1990

Professional Associations and Memberships:

- United States Navy Reserve, Lt. Commander
- American Association for Justice
- 100 Black Men of Atlanta
- State Bar of Georgia
- Atlanta Bar Association
- National Association of Bond Lawyers
- Georgia Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers